

To whom it might concern:

North Sea Aviation Services would like to express its sincere appreciation to Aviation Services International for the successful ferry flight of our DA62 MPP from Florida to Belgium.

Despite encountering challenging weather conditions en route, Gerald managed the flights with great professionalism and delivered the aircraft on schedule. Throughout the entire journey, he provided clear and timely updates on both the ferry progress and the aircraft's status, keeping us fully informed at all times.

We highly value his dedication, reliability, and professional performance, and would not hesitate to recommend his services.
